POSTLUDE Auld Lang Syne (revised words)

Auld Lang Syne The phrase translates to "old long since," and essentially means, "days gone by." The phrase is written in the Scots language and another translation is "for the sake of old times." The phrase became popular based on Robert Burns's poem titled, "Auld Lang Syne." The lyrics are commonly sung to an old folk tune.

Should old acquaintance be forgot, and never brought to mind?
Should old acquaintance be forgot, and Auld Lang Syne?

[Chorus:]

For Auld Lang Syne, my dear, for Auld Lang Syne,
