PRELUDE: #675 Precious Lord (player: Andrew Parkin)

by Thomas Dorsey

In this holy place, we acknowledge that the sacred land on which our faith community meets was inhabited by the Huron, Petun and Iroquois First Nations, and the Ojibwa who became known as the Mississauga, before Europeans settled here. We extend to them our gratitude.

OPENING WORDS:

MOMENT OF REMEMBRANCE: Let us stand for a moment of silence – to remember those 215 children who died and were buried in unmarked graves in a Kamloops residential school, and indeed, we remember all the others.

CHILDREN'S TIME/SONG: #373 Jesus loves me

by: Anna Bartlett

♪ Jesus loves me! This I know, for the Bible tells me so;
Little ones to him belong; they are weak, but he is strong.
Refrain: Yes, Jesus loves me! Yes, Jesus loves me!
Yes, Jesus loves me! The Bible tells me so.

Jesus loves me! This I know, as he loved so long ago, Taking children on his knee, saying, "Let them come to Me."

Jesus loves me still today, walking with me on my way,
Wanting as a friend to give light and love to all who live.

Note: Verses 3 & 4 written by Carolyn

♪ For everyone born a place at the table,
for everyone born clean water and bread,
a shelter a space, a safe place for growing,
for everyone born a star overhead compassion and peace.

Yes God will delight when we are creators of justice,

For gay & for straight, a place at the table,
a covenant shared, a welcoming space,
a rainbow of race & gender and colour, for gay & for straight,
the chalice of grace, Chorus

For all in this land, a place at the table.
Indigenous born, or 'come from away'
- God's love is for all, divisions God shatters
In Jesus we know, that ev'ry child matters Chorus
